

Trilateral Doctoral Workshops

Taube Department of Jewish Studies, University of Wrocław

24-25 October, 2024

Ada Rapoport-Albert Reading Room 114

October 24

14:00 – Prof. Wojciech Tworek welcomes Workshop Participants

14:15–15:15 – Justyna Lisak: An Image of Body and Corporeality in Jewish Press and Literature Published in the Territories of German and Austrian Partitions between 1880 and 1939 / Comments: Mariusz Kałczewiak, PhD

15:15–16:15 – Iryna Vikyrchak: The Evolution of Feminine Motives in the Poetry by Rose Ausländer in the Context of the Author's Multilingualism / Comments: Jakob Stürmann, PhD

16:45–17:45 – Margerita Lerman: Networks in Gray Zones. Delinquency and Jewish Actors in the Habsburg Empire, 1860s-1910s / Comments: Pavel Sládek, PhD

18:00–19:30 – Public Lecture: Prof. Tim Buchen, Jewish Elites in Breslau, 1860–1933 (Prof. Jerzy Woronczak lecture hall, room 115)

October 25

09:00–10:00 – Aleksandra Bandl: The Anti-Zionist Plot in Hungary in 1953 / Comments: Prof. Katerina Capkova

10:00–11:00 – Kajetán Holeček: Jew-less Space: The Absence of Jews in Eger (Cheb) During the Middle Ages / Comments: Prof. Marcin Wodziński

11:15–12:15 – Luboš Felgr: People with Only One Jewish Parent in the Protectorate of Bohemia and Moravia / Comments: Prof. Tim Buchen

12:15–12:30 – Summary and Conclusion of the Workshops

Funded by the European Association for Jewish Studies